The purest, most healthful, nutritious drink for table use is Aromalt. For sale by Joseph Connolly.

L. F. Castleman on last Saturday, killed a wild goose on the creek near Potosi, which dressed 10 pounds.

Laffin & Rand's loaded shells, cartridges, shot, powder, etc., at very low prices can be had at Connolly's.

The new pews for the Presbyterian Church arrived last Saturday. They are of quartered oak, and very handsome.

For want of space, we are unable to publish all of the communication signed "A Young Republican," this week.

We are pleased to note that our subscription list has increased materially during the past week. Let the good work go on.

The quarterly conference of the M. E. Church was held at this place, last Saturday. Presiding Elder N. B. Henry, preached Saturday and Sunday morning and evening.

We are in receipt of several communications which are not signed with the real name of the writer, therefore we do not think it best to publish them.

The official count of the election returns was completed Friday evening, and appears entire in this issue of the JOURNAL. There was no material change from the first count.

Mr. Samuel Graves died very suddenly one day last week, at the residence of John W. Foxers, on Cub Creek. Mr. Graves was an old resident of this county, and was at the time of his death 95 years of age.

Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Bliss entertained a number of their friends at an oyster supper, at the Hotel Austin, last Thursday evening. All present enjoyed the occasion very much, and hope to join the Dr. in celebrating another Republican victory in 1896.

Mr. B. W. Compton, of Berryman, took charge of the Potosi Hotel the first of this week. We wish him success in his new venture. Mrs. W. H. Sparks, who formerly managed the house, will remove to the north end of town, and take the house now occupied by Mr. Livingston. Mrs. Sparks wishes to extend her thanks to the public for its patronage and hopes the same may be bestowed upon her successor.

Hurrah!
